

We're in this together

We are faced with challenging times as the world deals with the impact of COVID-19. The health risks are real and the economic implications for many businesses have been significant. We understand that your business is facing unprecedented challenges and we want you to know we're here for you.

As one of the strongest and most trusted banks in the country, Valley stands firm in supporting small businesses in this time of uncertainty. That's why we're still taking applications for funding through the PPP (Paycheck Protection Program) to get you the critical funding you need right now. Our banking professionals are ready to work with you to navigate the application process and expedite your loan package as quickly and efficiently as possible.

For more information or to apply for PPP funding, please visit our online submission form. When completing the submission form, please use referral code
