

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

Paycheck Protection Program

The Paycheck Protection Program is part of the $2 trillion federal stimulus package passed by Congress on March 27 to support America's small businesses.

The program extends low-interest loans of up to $10 million to eligible businesses, a portion of which may not need to be repaid.

Who's eligible?

Businesses with 500 or fewer employees that were operating on or before Feb. 15, 2020, plus:

- Eligible non-profit organizations
- Veterans organizations
- Tribal business concerns
- Sole proprietorships and self-employed individuals
- Independent contractors

How much can I borrow?

Loan amount maximum is determined by a formula based on $$\left(\begin{array}{l} \text{Average} \\ \text{monthly} \\ \text{payroll} \\ \text{costs} \end{array} \right) \times 2.5$$

or up to $10 million

Most businesses:

Average monthly payroll for 2019, excluding costs over $100,000 on annualized basis for each employee

Seasonal businesses:

Average monthly payroll from Feb. 15 to June 30, 2019, excluding costs over $100,000 on an annualized basis for each employee

New businesses:

Average monthly payroll from Jan. 1 to Feb. 29, 2020, excluding costs over $100,000 on an annualized basis for each employee

Can this loan be forgiven?

How do I prepare?

- ✓ Gather ownership information, including your Tax Identification Number and breakdown of ownership.
- ✓ Scan PDF copies of 2019 and 2020 year-to-date payroll reports.

What else should I know?

Eligibility is limited to one loan per Tax Identification Number.

Forgiveness would be reduced if headcount decline or wages fall by more than 25% for any employee that made less than $100,000 in 2019.

Businesses have until June 30, 2020 to rehire employees and restore salaries.
